DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 3, 5-8, 12, 13, 15-24, and 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Carbone (6,071,115), which shows all of the claimed limitations. Carbone shows, among other things, a burner assembly (see at least fig. 5), a series of heat exchanger tubes 25, a single burner plate 20 with a center aperture 33,52 and a series of ports 22,23, having an annular path surrounding the center aperture through which premixed air/gas mixture passes, is ignited, and directed into the adjacent inlets of the heat exchanger tubes (see at least figs.). Carbone further shows a body 30 having a single gas supply (see at least col. 6, lines 45-56) and perforated diffuser 52.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carbone (6,071,115). Carbone discloses substantially all of the claimed limitations, but does not specifically recite a number of ports or groups of ports greater or less than the number of inlets. The number of ports is an obvious modification based on design choice, and depends on spatial considerations. In view of the absence of criticality for this particular design, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate it into the invention disclosed by Carbone, so as to provide for spatial considerations.

7. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carbone (6,071,115) in view of Trihey (3,526,367). Carbone discloses substantially all of the claimed limitations, but does not specifically recite a single injector. Trihey teaches a burner assembly including, among other things, a single injector 6,7,8, which is less complex and particularly suitable for mass production (see at least col. 1, lines 61-64). Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to incorporate the injector of Trihey into the invention disclosed by Carbone, so as to provide a device particularly suitable for mass production.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claim have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3749

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
